

LETTER FROM THE VICARAGE.

A New Year beckons!!

As the Church began a new year in Advent looking towards the blessings of the Incarnation at Christmas we were asked to reflect on our lives and seek to make efforts to amend them and so bring them into line with where we believe God is asking us to be. Now that we approach another New Year the helpful tradition of making New Year Resolutions is a positive way in which we can seek to make some changes to our lives and seek to express them within the life of Jesus Christ.

God is all around us he is always with us but how do we give thanks to him for that grace which he freely bestows upon us? How do we respond to Jesus whom we believe lived and died for us in order that each New Year may bring us ever closer to him and therefore to the Father, and then of course how do we engage with the Holy Spirit through which we are encouraged to live like Jesus and reach out to the Father?

Well we do this through living a life of sacrificial giving and through worship!!

We give our very selves to God by seeking to place him and his promises to us at the centre of our lives, we are therefore people with a vision and a mission, that is we are people on a journey seeking to show others as we travel along in life that we are prepared to make sacrifices for the sake of that vision in thanksgiving to God.

Many people follow the faith of Christ but not many come to Church on a regular basis, similarly many of us have family responsibilities and we tend always to place those alongside many others as primary in our lives placing God well down the list of priorities. When we consider all that God has done for us and all that he can do for us and the world in which we live, we do not seem as people of faith to give God the attention which he truly deserves. So this year for one of those resolutions may I ask you to support your faith by turning up at Church with members of your family just a couple of times more than you did in 2007.

For making time for God and worshipping together with the body of Christ is the best way to ensure that the journey of faith in which you travel is leading you in the right direction to the Father. For all that God has given us in the past year and for all that he will give to us in the coming year it is not that much to ask that we simply remember to say thank you to him by joining others in worship of him. So wherever you worship or even if at present you never worship at all just give God a thought when you make those resolutions.

I know I speak for all the Churches when I say that we are here for you and we would love to see you all more often.

So I say truly to you all have a great New Year and see you soon!!!

Yours in Christ,

Clive

Please don't think that your garden cannot possibly be good enough - of course it is ! People who have done it previously have had a lot of fun doing it and meet some really interesting people.
