

Have we got Good News for you!

The April Diocesan Clergy Conference at Swanwick explored the understanding of Priesthood within our technological age and the impact that the internet revolution is having on global communications. An ‘incident’ happens on one side of the world and within minutes recorded images are broadcast globally, often before the media can react. A group of friends meet in Lincoln, not a pre-arranged meeting at a particular place and time but a spontaneous gathering ‘drawn together’ through mobile phone ‘texting’. The power of instant communication.

In this age of the Silicon chip, technology is now developing Nano Memory which uses individual molecules to store data. Confused? Imagine all the books in the British Library stored within an area the size of a twenty pence piece. Imagine human and computer interaction, carbon and silicon amalgamation; tiny computer implants enabling the deaf to hear and the blind to see.

This is not science fiction but a part of the technological revolution that is shaping the 21st Century. For you who cry ‘it’s a young persons thing’ sorry, the ‘silver surfers’ are proving equally adaptable, skilled and proficient within the ‘dot com’ world. How are we to respond? Yes, this revolution presents moral and ethical challenges but the answer is not to bury our heads but to write in the silicon (John 8:3-11) and engage with technology, to see and make sense of our world. It is already affecting the way we communicate the Gospel, as ‘blogging’ and ‘social networking sites’ globally share information, understandings, and beliefs. The collage of God pieced together in cyberspace!

Why not use this technology to further inform and promote our community, to raise awareness of events and incidents in Cherry Willingham, Fiskerton and Reepham?

Why not share what we know?

Weekday services:

Just a reminder that there is a weekday Holy Communion in the Benefice. This is held in St Peter and St. Paul’s Church at Cherry Willingham every Wednesday at 9.30am. This is a short reflective service with no hymns. Further to this, there are services held in Le Grand Luce Court twice a month. On the first Monday of the month it is Morning Worship at 10.30am, and on the third Monday Holy Communion at the same time. The residents of Le Grand Luce would love you to join them and stay for a coffee and a chat afterwards, if you are able to. We do sing hymns at these services and would love some extra singing voices, so why not come along and be part of our weekday worship?

Sue Bradley.

West Lindsey Open Churches Weekend.

Once again St. Clement's Church took part in this annual event, opening on Sunday May 18th. It was really lovely to see so many people from the village – both long time supporters of our lovely church and new residents, coming to learn more about the history of the building and breathe in some of the calm atmosphere.

During the day, we welcomed over 90 visitors from as far a-field as Durham, York, Rotherham, Nottingham and all parts of Lincolnshire. Two of the visitors came particularly to see our Stained Glass Windows and our Durham visitors were able to give some historical information about pieces of the stonework which were new to us.

Thank you to everyone who came, it was good to talk to so many people and along the way raise (a much needed) £286 for Church maintenance funds.

We will be open for this event next year – but we'd love to see you again before May 2009!

Fiskerton Open Gardens and Scarecrows

COME OUT AND JOIN IN!

Your local Scouts & members of the village are holding an Open Gardens and Scarecrow festival weekend.

What could be better than spending an afternoon walking around the village whilst visiting some of the best gardens and looking at some brilliant and funny scarecrows?

We want as many people as possible to create Scarecrows
*ANYONE CAN TAKE PART – Young or Old !!

Scarecrows are really easy to make, they can be traditional ones, funny ones, character ones, cartoon ones !! It really doesn't matter – All that matters is that loads of people take part !

Go on have a go – there is nothing to lose and you might win a nice prize !

Yes there are prizes for both young and old !

We would also like some people to let us borrow their gardens so that the beavers, cubs and scouts can display their scarecrows

All monies raised will be split between St Barnabas' Hospice and local groups
