Harvest Festivals in the past.

From The Revd. Sue Bradley

Harvest has been celebrated ever since human beings first, planted seeds, cut the heads of grain and stored them to use in times of scarcity. When the children of Israel entered the Promised Land they adapted the agricultural festivals being kept there, and these have come down to us today.

Lammas, the time of the first-fruits corresponds to the Feast of Weeks when the first sheaf of the barley harvest was offered to the Lord at a Lammas service.

Our Harvest Festivals correspond to the Feast of the Tabernacles, which is described in the Bible as 'the feast of ingathering, at the end of the year', i.e. the harvest-home. This was the last and greatest feast of the Jewish year and it was simply referred to as 'the feast'.

During this feast, the Jewish men dwelt in green booths or 'tabernacles' made out of branches, in commemoration of their time in the wilderness when there were no harvests, and they depended daily on God for food.

Harvest Festivals today.

The Harvest Festival is still one of the most popular celebrations, both in town and country. It may seem strange that now we tend to bring tinned or packet goods to decorate our schools and churches but these can be a modern way of acknowledging our dependence on God. On the other hand lumps of coal or sheaves of wheat may evoke memories for older people of past harvests when life was harder and celebrations more poignant, just as the 'tabernacles' reminded the Israelites of the harder more dependent times. For all generations a reminder is appropriate at harvest time that we are dependent on the basic humble elements of soil water and grain. From this we harvest fruits and grain which we should be willing to share with the poor and needy both in this country and further afield.

- i. The landowner re cutting back an overhanging hedge in the field gateway at the junction of Priory Drive and St. Clement's Drive.
- ii. The Playground Inspector re replacing the damaged gate in the play area
- iii. ACIS and LCC Highways re the problem of parking vehicles on the High Meadows estate
- iv. WLDC re providing a dog waste bin on the Lincoln side of the church

- Councillors were informed about the condition of public footpaths – LCC has had a change of contractors and the backlog of works is to be undertaken as soon as possible.
- COMPOSTING SITE - LCC Planning has postponed consideration of the composting site plans until September. Councillor Fleetwood explained that future dates for County Council planning meetings can be viewed on the LCC website but items on the agenda for any planning meeting do not come out until the week before the meeting. Applications become public documents seven days before the date of the planning meeting. If a member of the public wishes to comment on an application their comments must have focus on valid planning reasons.
The application will only appear on the agenda if the applicant decides he wishes to continue with the plans. If that happens, as soon as the date for that planning meeting is known Councillor Fleetwood agreed to contact the Chairman. Notices will be put up in the Village Hall and Parish Council noticeboards and at the shop.
- Flood Mitigation Scheme: The plans have been approved by the Environment Agency. WLDC will now implement the scheme as Morris Homes is refusing to pay the amount they had previously agreed. Specifications for tender for the work have gone to five contractors with a deadline of 23rd July and works are scheduled to commence on 9th August

INVITATION TO

The Fairtrade Coffee Morning to be held on Saturday, 11 September 2010 from 10 a.m. at Cherry Willingham Church Hall.

These coffee mornings started seven years ago to promote the sale of fair trade products and to provide a social gathering for the whole community. All profits from the coffee mornings are donated to local and overseas charities. Over the seven years, we have raised £3,660 for charities, including Women's Refuge, Breadline, Patients' Support Group, Sudan, Cherry Special Families, Christian Partners in Africa, Air Ambulance, HEAL, Nomad Trust, Tools for Mission, Mattdoc.Com, Smiletrain and Lincoln branch of the Alheimers Society.

The sale of Fairtrade products in this country is booming, with all major supermarkets now selling products such as bananas, coffee, chocolate etc. Produce endorsed with the Fairtrade label ensures that farm workers are protected by appropriate labour standards and that a premium is paid to community projects. In 2008, Fairtrade benefited about 5 million people in poor countries.

If you would like to buy products locally, enjoy a cup of coffee in a very friendly environment and also help raise money for local charities, please join us on 11 September.

The monthly Coffee Morning at Reepham Methodist Chapel Hall will take place on Saturday September 18th from 10am – 11.30am

This month it will be raising money for St Barnabas Hospice. There will be stalls as well as coffee and cakes. There will be the usual Traidcraft Stall for groceries and gifts.

Please come along and support this excellent cause

CAN YOU HELP?

Hi my name is Sean Tyler and I have lived in the centre of Fiskerton for 14 years. I have been selected to attend the World Scout Jamboree in Sweden in 2011 for 3 weeks along with 11 other Scouts & Explorers from the Lincoln area, and over 4000 from the UK.

It is a very expensive trip costing around £2000 each and we have to fund raise as much of this as possible. I currently deliver papers on weekdays to the Lincoln end of the village but am also looking for 'Odd Job Work' in and around the village.

Things I have done so far include: shed & fence painting, garden tidying, grass cutting, car washing, patio cleaning,

All done under your supervision and for what ever donation you want to give.

If you would like to talk to me, or have a job that needs doing please call 01522 753255.

Many Thanks, Sean

You have the power to reduce electronic and electrical waste

Every year in the UK, households throw away one-million tonnes of waste electronic and electrical equipment (also referred to as WEEE). This includes items such as televisions, fridges, computers, hairdryers and electronic toys. Disposing of such items in household waste bins means they will end up buried in a landfill site – wasting resources and putting a major strain on the environment.

You can help to reduce this waste by following the Environment Agency's advice:

- Before purchasing an item, think about if you really need a new one – could your existing equipment be upgraded, or could you purchase a refurbished product instead?
- If you have a product you no longer use, think about passing it on to someone else.

So what should you do when you need to dispose of WEEE?

- Some retailers operate schemes where they will take your old item if you are replacing it with a new one like-for-like. For example, if you are buying a new kettle, they will take your old one. Ask your retailer if they are part of such a scheme.
- If you are having an item delivered, ask your retailer when arranging this if they will take back the old equipment at the same time. Retailers are only allowed to charge for collecting WEEE, not treating it.
- Old appliances can be taken to Household Waste Recycling Centres. Contact your council to find out what your nearest site accepts and what it doesn't.
- Ask your local council to collect your waste electrical equipment for you. They must collect it, but there may be a charge.

To find out more information visit the Environment Agency's website at www.environment-agency.gov.uk and search for WEEE, or call us on 0800 807060.
