APRIL 2015

Vicar's Blog:

A man, a carpenter who lived 2,000 years ago in an obscure Roman province in a town called Nazareth. At age 30, the Man hung up his carpenter's apron and began to speak publically up and down the countryside. Religious leaders were ambivalent at best. Most felt deeply threatened, because this ex-carpenter taught in huge outdoor meetings with compelling authority -- and he healed people. Not just colds and fevers, but crippled limbs and blind eyes. The religious leaders saw their orderly world spinning out of their control. And so they determined to eliminate the Man. They infiltrated his inner circle so they could grab him away from public view. And once in custody, they engineered a trial behind closed doors, and then put huge political pressure on the Roman governor to execute him immediately. Within 12 hours of his arrest, the Man hung on a cross. Six hours later he was dead -- seemingly a martyr to a glorious but hopeless cause.

But there's more. The Man did not resist his arrest and crucifixion -- in fact, he had predicted it to his followers again and again. And he taught that his death would have incredible meaning -- that he would give his life as a ransom for many. And on the cross he prayed for his crucifiers -- "Father, forgive them, for they don't know what they're doing." And he died. A Roman centurion who saw him die said, "Surely, this man was the Son of God." He died at just about three in the afternoon. By dusk he had been buried by a rich follower in a tomb hollowed out of solid rock, a tomb protected by a huge stone that rolled into place along a channel in the rock, then clunk! The tomb was secure.

A couple of days later, a group of women came to complete the burial and they found the stone rolled back and the tomb empty. An angel appeared to them saying, "He is not here, he has risen." This, too, the Man, Jesus, had foretold to his followers. Over the next 40 days, he appeared to his disciples and others, to even 500 at one time. And then he left, promising to return. His Spirit was poured out on his followers a few days later. Within a single generation his followers travelled with the amazing story. Our world has never been the same, because where people engage with the Man Jesus, they find forgiveness and freedom and meaning.

Easter Greetings to one and all!
Penny

Just a reminder to mark the date in your diaries for the Open Churches weekend when we will be celebrating one hundred years of the Women's Institute by holding an exhibition in our village church. Perhaps you will be inspired to join our WI, you can always come along to a couple of our monthly meetings as a visitor to try us out, our programme for this year includes a make-up demonstration, Tai Chi, a cookery demonstration, herbs for health and much more.
